

EVERYTHING YOU NEED TO KNOW ABOUT SHORT STORIES

CHARACTER

There are 2 meanings for the word

CHARACTER:

1: the person in a work of fiction

2: the characteristics of a person

PROTAGONIST

VS.

ANTAGONIST

Protagonist - The central character to the story with all major events having some importance to this person. This character is usually the HERO

Antagonist - The opposer of the main character
usually the VILLAIN

CHARACTERISTICS OF A PERSON

Characterization is the information the author gives the reader about the characters themselves. The author may reveal a character in several ways:

- a) his/her PHYSICAL appearance
- b) what he/she says, thinks, feels and dreams
- c) what he/she does or does not do
- d) what others say about him/her and how others react to him/her

EXAMPLE 2

b) Time - When is the story taking place?
(historical period, time of day, year, etc)

EXAMPLE 3

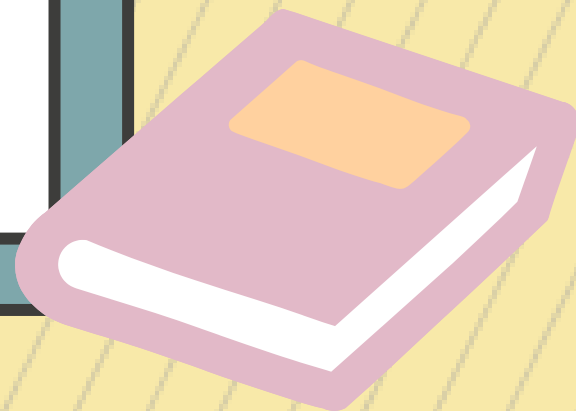

c) Weather Conditions - Is it rainy, sunny, stormy, etc?

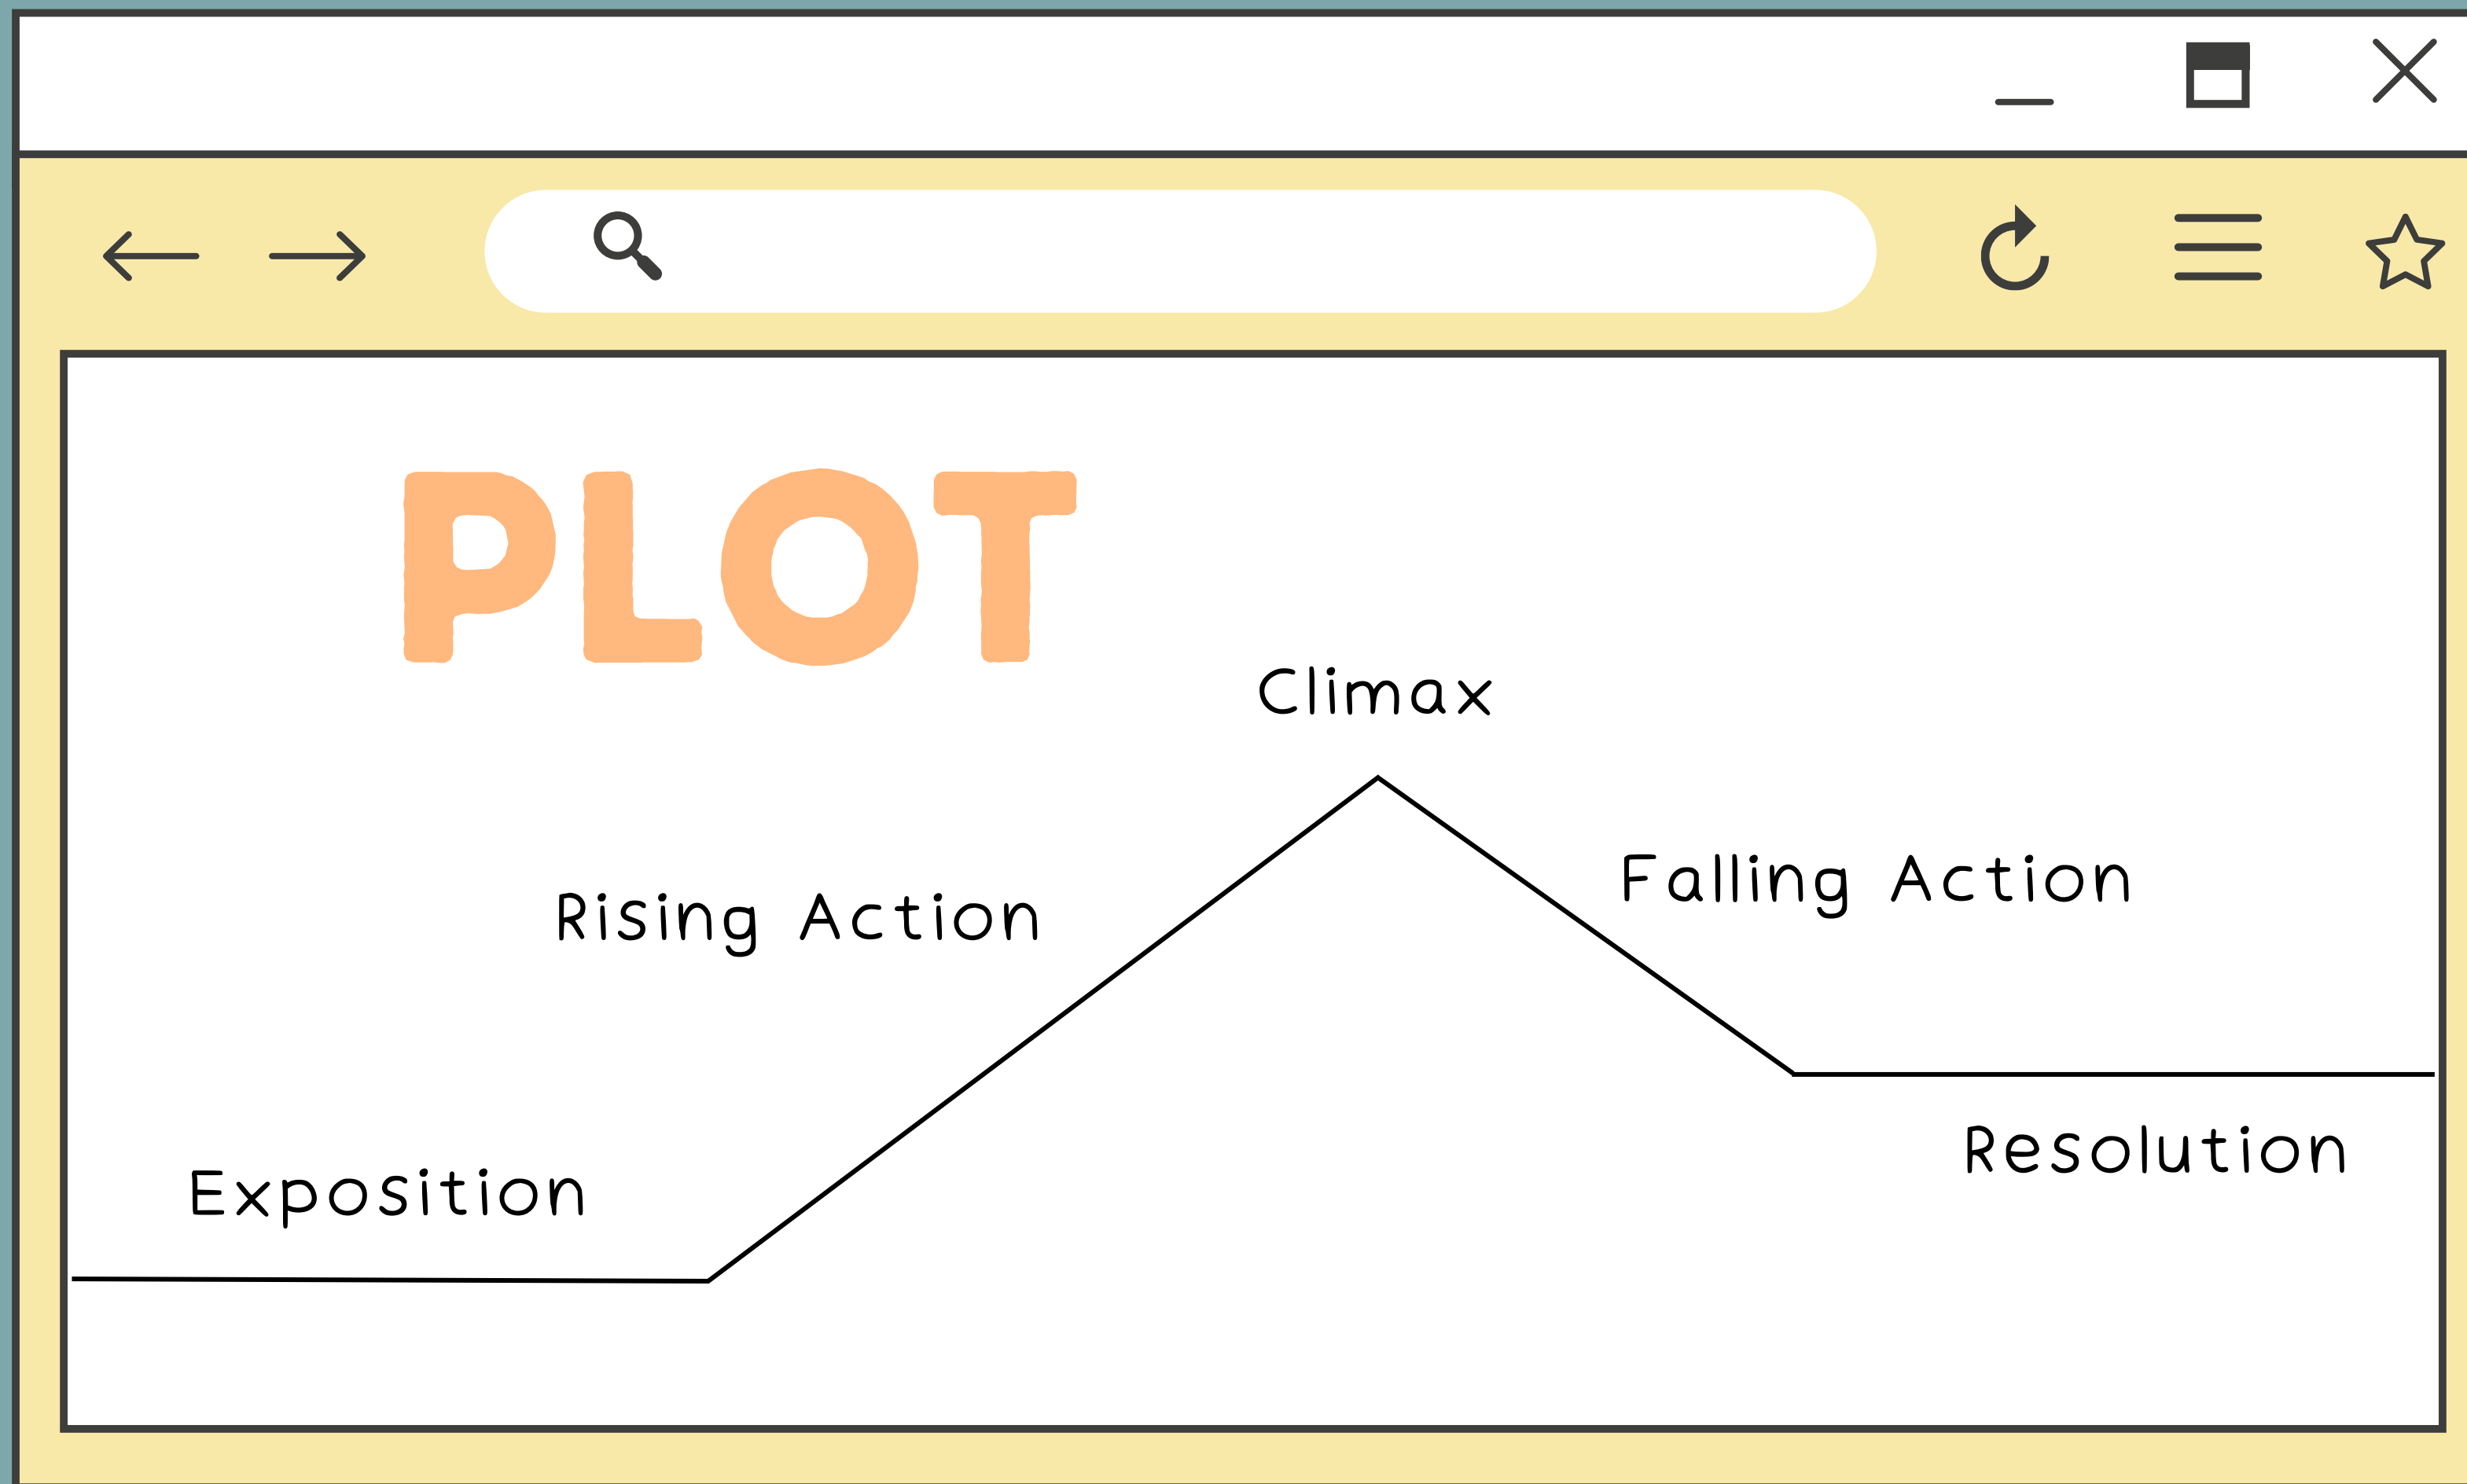

EXAMPLE 4

d) Social Conditions -
What is the
daily life of the characters like?

EXAMPLE 5

e) Mood or Atmosphere - What
feeling is created
at the beginning of the story? Is it
bright and cheerful
or dark and frightening?

INTRODUCTION/ EXPOSITION

The beginning of the story
where the characters and
the setting is revealed

*Once upon
a time...*

RISING ACTION

This is where the
EVENTS in the story
become complicated
and the conflict in
the story is revealed

TYPES OF CONFLICT

PERSON VS PERSON (PHYSICAL)

The leading character struggles with their physical strength against other men, forces of nature, or animals.

PERSON VS CIRCUMSTANCES (CLASSICAL)

The leading character struggles against fate, or the circumstances of life facing them.

PERSON VS SOCIETY (SOCIAL)

The leading character struggles against ideas, practices, or customs of other people.

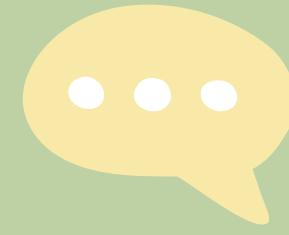

PERSON VS SELF (PSYCHOLOGICAL)

The leading character struggles with themselves; with their own soul, ideas of right or wrong, physical limitations, choices, etc.

CLIMAX

This is the highest point of interest and the turning point of the story. The reader wonders What will happen next?

FALLING ACTION

The events and complications begin to resolve themselves. The reader KNOWS what has happened next and if the conflict was resolved or not.

CONCLUSION/ RESOLUTION

This is the final outcome or untangling of events in the story.

THEME (MESSAGE/MORAL)

The theme in a piece of fiction is its controlling idea or its central insight.

It is the author's underlying meaning or main idea that they are trying to convey.

The theme may be the author's thoughts about a topic or view of human nature. The title of the short story usually points to what the writer is saying and he may use various figures of speech to emphasize his theme, such as: symbol, allusion, simile, metaphor, hyperbole, or irony.

THEME should not be one word .

Some simple examples of common themes from literature, TV, and film are:

- Things are not always as they appear to be

NOT:

- Love is blind
- Believe in yourself
- People are afraid of change
- Don't judge a book by its cover

COMMON THEMES

Man struggles against human nature: Man is always at battle with human nature, whether the drives described are sexual, material or against the aging process itself.

Man struggles against societal pressure: ManKind is always struggling to determine if societal pressure is best for living. Characters who know how society says they should live, but feel society's dictation is contrary to what makes them happy.

Man struggles to understand divinity: ManKind tries to understand and make peace with God, but satisfaction is elusive and difficult.

Crime does not pay: A popular theme played out in books throughout time is the concept that honesty is honored and criminals will eventually be caught.

COMMON THEMES

Overcoming adversity: Many books laud characters who accept a tough situation and turn it into triumph

Friendship is dependent on sacrifice: This is the idea that you can't have friends if you don't act like a friend.

The importance of family: Sacrifices for family are honored and explored, as are the family bonds that survive adversity.

COMMON THEMES

Just when you think life is finally going to be easy, something bad happens to balance it all out.

Love is the worthiest of pursuits: Many writers assert the idea that love conquers all, appealing to the romantic side of us.

Death is part of the life cycle: Literary works with this theme show how death and life are intricately connected.

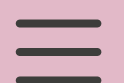

Sacrifices bring reward: Sacrifices and hard work pay off in the end, despite the challenges along the way.

COMMON THEMES

Human beings all have the same needs: book after book asserts that rich or poor, educated or dumb, all human beings need love and other basic needs met.

All choices have consequences: This is the idea that for every choice characters make there are consequences. These consequences can be either positive or negative and will affect the character's lives.
